Mission/Vision Team Update

When the Mission/Vision Team are completed with their task, we will have a mission statement, a vision statement, and defined core values. These aren't just nice things that we print in the bulletin, but will help us design the decisions we seek to make in the coming years for the church. Ever after, our budget decisions, outreach decisions, discipleship decisions and special program decisions will be based upon this information. If you'd like information or to give input to the process, please contact one of the pastors. Stay tuned on our mission/vision blog on our website at www.VancouverAdventist.com.
