The Weekly Newsletter for our Church

Danny and Esther Kim

The Oregon Conference Administration is sending us a new assistant pastor in the form of Danny Kim. Danny comes to us with quite a few years of experience. He and his wife, Esther, have two children - Lauren, 10, and Marcus, 7.

They currently live in Clackamas and have most recently been pastoring the English-speaking congregation at the Korean Adventist Church.

Danny and Esther share a large trust in the Lord to lead them where they need to be in ministry. Danny has served as a youth pastor and assistant pastor in California, Oregon and even a short stint in the mission field of Seoul, South Korea. Danny loves to preach, give Bible studies and wants to see the kingdom grow and expand right here in Vancouver. He's excited about the possibilities of coming here to join us in ministry.

Danny and Esther's first Sabbath with us will be on July 11, 2009. There will be a welcome for him and his family at the regular fellowship meal that week. We hope you will plan to come and give them a warm welcome.

Student Aid Funds

Each year, many of the kids who attend a local Christian Adventist School in the area, need tuition help for funding their Christian education. These are kids and parents who are dedicating what they can to attend a private Adventist school. And sometimes the financial picture is just too much.

Currently we have about $3100 in student aid funds - considerably less than we've had in recent years. We expect our requests will outrun our resources in no time at all. We'd like to begin building that fund back up during the summer months before people begin requesting those funds. If you would like to begin helping to fund that worthy project, please place your money in an offering envelope and mark it "Student Aid". Thanks for your support.

Mission/Vision Team Update

The Mission of the church is really found scripturally in Matthew 28:18-20. It's called the Great Commission where Jesus sends us out into the world to go and make disciples, teaching them to obey and follow all that God says. The Mission/Vision Team have begun to talk about the mission statement and that it will basically be a contemporary restatement of this gospel commission. Stay tuned for more information. If you'd like information or wish to give input to the process, please contact one of the pastors.

*Rejoice in the Lord always, I will say it again: Rejoice!
Let your gentleness be evident to all. The Lord is near.
Do not be anxious about anything, but in everything,
by prayer and petition, with thanksgiving,
present your requests to God.
And the peace of God, which transcends all understanding,
will guard your hearts and your minds in Christ Jesus.
